The style for you

The Varsity
Fifty Five
Dixie Weave

If you're one of the men who can't get off to camp or trench and won't get the chance to wear the "olive drab," you'll be interested in these new military models for the home-fighters.

Here's one—brisk and new and just military enough to make you stand erect and feel well dressed. It's made by Hart Schaffner & Marx. It's a Dixie Weave; made of light, cool all-wool—because wool wears best; keeps shape best and looks best. Most summer clothes are shapeless and wrinkle badly. Dixie Weaves save you from such annoyance. Better get yours now.

Prices $15 to $25

CELEBRATION AT EAST CENTRAL

WONDERFUL CAMPUS DEMONSTRATION AND SPECTACULAR PROGRAM IN AUDITORIUM.

The flag dedication and celebration at the normal Thursday evening marked an epoch in the history of the school. The exercises began at 8 o'clock and the largest crowd on record was present to witness the program.

When 500 young ladies dressed in white and each carrying two small United States flags appeared on the campus in double file, marching to the music of a most excellent volunteer band, a round of applause swept through the crowd. Under the leadership of Miss Anna Weaver Jones, who is in charge of the physical training department, they formed on the athletic field and almost completely covered it. They then gave a fine exhibition of marching, concluding with the flag salute and pledge repeated in concert. Following this they gave a drill while singing America, a formal gymnastic drill and flag drills while singing Dixie and The Star Spangled Banner.

Too much praise cannot be given Miss Jones and the young ladies, for this was without exception the best thing of the kind ever seen at Ada.

The next part of the program was given in the auditorium opening with the Battle Hymn of the Republic, "Keep the Home Fires Burning" under the leadership of Miss Keller, and an invocation by Rev. W. M. Crutchfield. Following this was a stirring address by E. J. Giddings of Oklahoma City. He laid special emphasis on the work to be done by women in the war.

Following the address the new service flag containing more than 200 stars was dedicated by Capt. W. L. Roddie who is himself a veteran of the civil war and has a son in the service now. This flag was the gift of S. M. Shaw. The large American flag and allied flags donated by the student body were presented by Senator J. S. Vaughan, superintendent of the Wapanucka school and was formally accepted by Pres. J. M. Gordon.

The entire program was impressive in the extreme and the auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity.

THOUSANDS ATTEND RED CROSS PICNIC

MANY ATTRACTIONS TO KEEP THE CROWD AMUSED. TWO AIRPLANES ADD INTEREST TO OCCASION.

The picnic and celebration was attended by thousands Thursday and a good crowd was out again today. The crowd came early and stayed late. A countless number of vehicles were parked on the camping ground and the people swarmed over the ground to see the attractions. On the grounds there were to be found the usual run of amusements, Booger Red's shows and numerous stands being well patronized.

Addresses befitting the patriotic occasion were delivered by Prof. Chas. Evans, former president of the Edmond Normal, and E. J. Giddings of Oklahoma City. Both addresses were well received and stirred the audience with renewed determination to bend every possible energy towards making the victory over the Germans as speedy and decisive as possible. Judge F. B. Swank was detained by court duties and unable to come. Oscar Simpson of Chickasha and C. E. B. Cutler of Ada were on the program for today.

As had been announced two army airplanes put in their appearance in the morning. The one from Post Field, Fort Sill, arrived first after an uneventful trip of one hour and fifteen minutes. The one from Barron Field, Camp Bowie, arrived shortly afterwards, making the flight in two hours. The first machine carried Lieutenant E. H. White and Sergeant Kehr. The other was brought here by Lieut. Jones and Sergeant Bullock. The two machines were at an altitude of 6,000 feet when they reached Ada and dropped down to about 500 as they made several circles before landing. A good landing place had been provided and everything passed off as planned. The Fort Worth aviators gave an exhibition of aerial tricks that were highly entertaining to the crowd. About the middle of the afternoon the Texas machine left for Sherman and the other returned to its base at Fort Sill.

The result of the W. O. W. competitive drill and baseball games could not be obtained today but will be given tomorrow.

A good line of races was pulled off during the afternoon and others are scheduled for this afternoon. Following is the program and results of yesterday's meet:

FOURTH CELEBRATION IN FOREIGN LANDS

(By the Associated Press)

American soldiers numbering more than one million observed the Fourth of July on foreign soil for the first time. France celebrated the day as a National holiday, with festivities in every village. In Paris the great men of France participated. Glowing tributes were paid to Lafayette and Rochambeau.

In England the royal family led the celebration. At more than forty camps in England American soldiers held sport meets. Cuba and most of the Latin-American countries also observed the Fourth.

NEGROES HANGED AT FT. DODGE

SENTENCE OF COURT MARTIAL ON SOLDIERS CARRIED OUT AT CAMP.

(By the Associated Press)
Camp Dodge, Iowa, July 5.—Three negro soldiers, convicted by court martial of assaulting and outraging a seventeen year old white girl on the cantonment grounds on the night of May 24th, were hanged today before virtually the entire division. The sentence was approved by President Wilson. The negroes overcame the girl's escort but were captured next morning.

WILSON SIGNS BIG APPROPRIATION BILLS

(By the Associated Press)
Washington, July 5.—President Wilson signed the sundry civil appropriation bill providing $3,000,000 for government expenses, including the ship building program; also the naval bill carrying $1,600,000,000 and increasing the navy permanently to 131,000 men, with 50,000 extra for war.

Admiral Ward Dead.

GERMAN OFFICER ATTACKS GIRL

Father Shot and Girl at Mercy of Hun Brute.

A happy Belgian maiden, seeing her prospective husband clubbed to death with the butt-end of a musket, under orders from General Von Gluck; her father shot down and herself torn from the arms of her aged grandmother by a German officer, Captain Von Hancke, who fortunately was unable to accomplish his evil purpose, these experiences of Ruth Clifford provide but a slight idea of the atrocities of the German barbarians that are faithfully and authentically shown, with many heretofore unknown insights into the private life of the German emperor, as played by Julian Rupert, in his sensational screen expose of the German brutes, "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," to be shown at the Liberty Theater Monday and Tuesday.

FRENCH AND BRITISH GAIN

SUBSTANTIAL ADVANCES MADE AT THREE POINTS OF ATTACK.

(By the Associated Press)

Paris, July 5.—The French last night advanced their line nearly half a mile on a front of a mile and a quarter in the neighborhood of Autrech, northwest of Soissons. It is officially announced. They later delivered another attack in the same region, netting ground on a front of three miles to a maximum depth of three-fifths of a mile. The French took over 1,000 prisoners.

Casualty List.
Washington, July 5.—Army casualties numbered fifty-two names, divided as follows:
Killed in action 9
Died of wounds 6
Died of accident and other causes 3
Died of disease 5
Wounded severely 26
Missing 2
Prisoners 1

British Capture Hamel.
London, July 5.—British troops last night captured the village of Hamel, east of Amiens, advancing their line to a depth of more than a mile.

Casualty List of the Fourth.
Washington, July 4.—The army casualty list given out today contained twenty-three names, divided as follows:
Killed in action 5
Died of wounds 7
Died of accident 1
Died of disease 2
Wounded severely 3
Missing 5

Finland May Enter War.
Stockholm, July 5.—Newspapers here expect Finland to declare war against the entente any hour.

Pushing Awards Medals.
With American Army in France, July 5.—General Pershing awarded the distinguished service cross to thirty-two for gallantry in the Chateau-Thierry sector.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Massey of Denison, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Massey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Long and family. Mrs. Massey was formerly Miss Bessie Long of this place.

NO REST FOR GERMANS NOW

ON BOTH FRONTS ALLIES CONSTANTLY HARRASSING LINES OF HUNS.

(By the Associated Press)

Harrassing German lines in the west shows no signs of letting up. The allies gain ground here and there, bringing in large batches of prisoners. Total Germans taken last week 6,000. The game of striking the enemy a solid blow on a small sector advanced the British line a mile and a half on a four mile front, south of the Somme. German efforts to hold attacking Australians and Americans were vain. Through successful thrusts the past ten days the allies gained positions valuable for future offensives. On the Italian front General Diaz is equally successful in like tactics and has captured 4,800 Austrians since last Saturday.

German Peace Talk.
Amsterdam, July 5.—In a leading article, Vorwarts, the Berlin socialist paper, declares the desire of the German people for a speedy peace with honor is so strong that any sensible accommodation is bound to lead to its realization.

GORE MAY DELAY RECESS OF CONGRESS

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, July 5.—An effort to call up in the house the measure authorizing the president to take over telegraph and telephone lines was blocked by objections and the house took up appropriations with a view to recess tomorrow night. The only obstacle to a recess for the summer is a threat by Senator Gore, Oklahoma, to delay emergency appropriations resolutions until congress acts on his proposal to increase the government minimum wheat price to $2.50.

The volunteer band that added greatly to the success of the normal entertainment and celebration Thursday evening should by all means be perpetuated. It was composed of well trained and talented musicians and it is to be hoped that steps will be taken to maintain the organization. The business men of the city should by all means lend all possible encouragement.

The sultan of Turkey is dead and some to his reward. However, this will not likely cause any change in the war situation for he was little more than a figurehead. The Germans in the person of Enver Pasha, a young Turk educated in Germany, have a firm grip on the Turkish government and another figurehead will be speedily set up on the throne and everything go on as before.

SUBMARINE CHASERS TURNED OUT RAPIDLY.

Detroit, Mich., July 5.—The rate of production of Ford Eagle boats, or submarine "killers," will NOT be decreased now that the first boats have taken the water, according to a statement by Henry Ford, the manufacturer.

"Do you think you can produce the boats as rapidly after the first one is launched?" Mr. Ford was asked before the completed craft was placed in the water.

"I don't think so; I know so," was the reply.
Speculation as to the rate of production after the first launching, which had been set for July 1, varied greatly and Mr. Ford, with his statement, put an end to gossip that there might be a slackening.

The same efficiency plan employed in the big automobile plant to produce cars with a minimum of lost motion is to be followed in the Eagle shipbuilding plant. Raw material is entered at one end of the big plant and the finished product takes the water at the other end. Training of thousands of workmen, each for certain duties in building the eagles, has kept pace with the task of constructing the production plant.

Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. Sold by Bart Smith.

WHY JIM DID NOT WANT TO FIGHT.

(By the Associated Press)
Louisville, Ky., July 5.—Jim is a big black powerfully built negro who still has the dust of a Southern Kentucky pike on his shoes when he arrived at Camp Zachary Taylor.

It was patent that Jim whose makeup was typical of the negroes of his section, was not greatly elated over the idea of going into the army, but he was evidently determined to be cheerful and was smiling broadly when he came through the receiving gates.

Several days later this captain was questioning him in an effort to draw him out.

"Jim," he asked, "do you want to fight?"

"Who, me? naw suh, boss, I mean Cap'n, I don't want to fight."

"Why not?"

"Why, Cap'n, there's two, three reasons, but the main one is Susie; she don't want me to fight. And besides I don't know where France is, and homes' boss, I never even seen a German."

DIDN'T HIT A LICK OF WORK IN 3 YEARS

Now Working Every Day Like Nothing Was Ever the Matter With Him.

"Positively, I hadn't been able to hit a lick of work in three years when I started on Tanlac, and now I am working every day like nothing was ever the matter with me," said Joe Boone, of 1416 North Nevada street, San Antonio, Texas, recently.

"Five years ago," he continued, "I was taken down with a bad spell of pneumonia that left me in a wretched state, and although I tried all sorts of medicines I couldn't regain my health. My appetite was so poor that I didn't relish the little I managed to force down and my food gave me no strength at all. My nerves went all to pieces and I couldn't sleep at night to do any good. I fell off till I was almost as thin as a rail and felt so tired and worn-out that I wasn't fit for a thing."

"Several of my friends had been taking Tanlac and were so much pleased with the way it got them over their troubles that they advised me to try it. My first bottle acted like it was made especially for my case and I began to pick up right off, and now after taking five more I am well and strong enough to do a good day's work at any time. I have a hearty appetite and can eat anything I want and am gaining in weight and strength every day. I sleep like a top and feel better than I have in years. When my sister saw the relief Tanlac brought me she started on it too, and it has done her so much good that she is praising it to everybody."

Tanlac is sold in Ada by Gwin & Mays Drug Company, and by leading druggists and dealers everywhere.

WAR WORK URGED ON REV. CRUTCHFIELD

The New York offices of the Y. M. C. A. are urging Rev. W. M. Crutchfield of this city to act as escort for transports for three trans-Atlantic trips between now and the first of the coming year. The War Council of the church is also urging him to give his time for the period of the war to special religious work at the army camps. He has not as yet announced his purpose, but will take up whatever line of work may seem to be his duty. If war work seems in greater demand than keeping the home fires burning, he says he will go into war work. If others appear ready to do the war work, he will be contented to work at home.

HIGH HONOR FOR MRS. TOM HOPE

Mrs. Tom Hope has been invited to become a member of the National Order of Patriots and her name has been placed on the roll of honor in acknowledgment of services rendered her country during the war.

This order was created for the purpose of giving honor to those who are especially deserving of it on account of valuable services given to our country toward the winning of the war.

Mrs. Hope is the second Oklahoman to receive this honor. Hon. Tom D. McKewen was the first person from this state to be made a member of the organization.

Don't forget the name of the remedy you need when the stomach or bowels are disordered. Prickly Ash Bitters quickly corrects such troubles and makes you feel bright and cheerful. You should have a bottle at home all the time. It is the dose taken promptly that prevents sickness and expense. Price $1.25 per bottle.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

COMPULSORY REGISTRATION IN SOUTH DAKOTA

(By the Associated Press)
Sioux Falls, S. D., July 5.—Compulsory registration of all able bodied men not engaged in productive enterprises—a recent order of the State Council of Defense—has solved South Dakota's problem of obtaining sufficient labor to harvest the 1918 small grain crop. Agricultural experts declare conditions point to a record yield.

Besides ordering registration of all men out of draft age engaged in essential industries, the Council has called upon drafted men not yet summoned to the colors and boys under draft age to register with their county councils.

One county agent appealing to this class of available help said: "Our object is to lick the Huns! There's not much band music, nor cheering from the bleachers, nor waving of flags in setting wheat bundles into shocks and helping thrash them. But it helps whip the Huns."

A campaign also has been inaugurated to prevent waste, thrasher hands being asked to take utmost precaution in handling the wheat and oat shocks.

Farmers over the state have begun construction of houses for the accommodation of volunteer workers.

To prevent a shortage of farm machinery already has twenty thrasher outfits in various sections of the state.

A drowsy, half-sick, discouraged feeling is caused by a torpid liver and impurities in the stomach and bowels Prickly Ash Bitters is a prompt and efficient remedy. Try it. Price $1.25 per bottle.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

FRANCE ELECTRIFIED BY WILSON'S SPEECH.

(By the Associated Press)

So far as we know all the new registrants have sent in their question sheets and are now ready to hit the kaiser as soon as Uncle Sam wants them. These boys are young but men in spirit and will make excellent soldiers.

Fine started one night last week in some bale cotton on the cotton platform near the railroad and destroyed about 30 bales of cotton. It is supposed that the fire started from a spark from an engine.

We are confident that this school district will go over the top with the war saving stamp sale. For we have great confidence in the patriotism of our people.

NO COMPROMISE SAYS WILSON

PRESIDENT ANSWERS GERMAN PEACE FEELERS IN UNMIS- TAKABLE TERMS.

(By the Associated Press)
Washington, July 5.—President Wilson yesterday answered all feelers for a compromise peace, with a new and unqualified consecration of America to the struggle for cleaning military autocracy from the world.
At an Independence Day gathering on the gentle slopes of Mount Vernon, home and tomb of George Washington, and surrounded by scenes which looked upon the creation of this nation, the president addressed a small gathering of officials and of diplomats of the allied nations.
But he spoke to the world and he spoke the logical sequel to his "force without stint or limit" declaration of several weeks ago.
Unreservedly, the president declared that there could be no thought of a peace which did not mean the destruction of military autocracy or its reduction to virtual impotence.
"A reign of law, based in the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind," was the way he summarized in a single sentence the objects of humanity in the world war.
"Whether the president was addressing his remarks directly to the recent speech of German Foreign-Secretary Von Kuehlmann, or to the foreshadows of a renewed German peace offensive, or whether he merely took the occasion of the celebration of American Independence to emphasize to the world the war aims of the nation can only be divined. He did not deal with the progress of the war or any particular phase of it, but spoke eloquently of America's attitude toward Germany's so-called peace treaties in the east by grouping the people of Russia "for the moment unorganized and helpless" among people of the world standing against the enemies of liberty.

"The past and the present are in deadly grapple and the peoples of the world are being done to death between them," said President Wilson.
"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise. No half-way decision is conceivable. No half-way decision is conceivable. These are the ends for which the associated people of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before there can be peace."
"1.—The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly, and of its single choice, disturb the peace of the world, or, if it can not be presently destroyed, at the least its reduction to virtual impotence.
"3.—The consent of all nations to be governed in their conduct towards each other by the same principles of honor and of respect for the common law of civilized society that govern the individual citizens of all modern states in their covenants may be secretly observed, no private plots or conspiracies hatched, no selfish injuries wrought with impunity and a mutual trust established upon the handsome foundation of a mutual respect for right."
"4.—The establishment of an organization of peace which shall make it certain that the combined power of free nations will check every invasion of right and serve to make peace and justice the more secure by affording a definite tribunal of opinion to which all must submit and by which every international readjustment that cannot be amicably agreed upon by the people directly concerned should be sanctioned.
"These great objects can be put into a single sentence. What we see is the reign of law based upon the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind."

Shall the State Curb An Essential Industry And Hinder the National Government In Winning the War?

TAX PERSECUTION BY AN IRRESPONSIBLE LEGISLATURE

Many individuals and corporations doing business in Oklahoma pay from thirty to sixty per cent of their income in taxes to the Federal Government to help defray necessary war expense.

The state of Oklahoma imposes an income tax of 2 percent upon this tax money going to the Government. No exemption is allowed by the Oklahoma law for the money paid out as Government Tax. If the Government increases the income and profits tax to one hundred percent, the Oklahoma taxpayer must, under the Oklahoma law, pay tax to the State on that outlay. This fact is alluded to and pointed out to the citizens of Oklahoma in addition to the other excessive tax exactions levied on those engaged in the oil industry for the purpose of showing the vicious fight that has been made upon this industry by politicians in Oklahoma. And, we regret to note there is still some of this loud mouthed, blatant bunch still trying to ride into office by vilifying those engaged in this great industry.

Tax burdens are so heavy that there is a large number of our industrial business men and concerns borrowing money to pay them. This condition means such enterprises are facing insolvency; at least they are in such a condition that they will have to cease drilling additional wells and contributing to the extension of oil production. Oil producers cannot stand up under the heavy tax requirements of the government, if unnecessary taxes are imposed by the State.

Money in Oklahoma is limited, and the time has come when the people should cooperate in order to work out a scientific, financial system for the state, and the state expenditures held down to a minimum consistent with a reasonable performance of the state functions.

Six million dollars were appropriated in excess of the recent state requirements by the last session of the Oklahoma Legislature. Anyone having doubts about this statement should read the message of the Governor at the opening of the Legislative session. It was because they felt they could get the money easy from oil industry that these extraordinary appropriations were made. Not satisfied with the heavy exactions upon the oil producers, the state tax rate was increased on the farmers and every other property owner in the state. This same condition will prevail again, notwithstanding the war burdens and the destruction of industry as long as irresponsible demagogues are placed in office.

Excessive and unnecessary tax reduces production, clogs the wheels of industry, and the action of the state in this regard is seriously hampering the oil producers in their efforts to meet the request of the government for increased production. The oil business is extremely hazardous; men cannot take the risk incident to this business when antagonized and burdened in every conceivable manner by the state.

To secure the growth of industry and the development and conversion of raw materials (which are here in abundance) into money and useful articles of commerce, the state should adopt a broad-minded and fair basis for business operations.

The Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association is composed of men engaged in the oil industry. They have spent millions in drilling wells in Oklahoma, a great per cent of which were dry holes; most of them have their home in Oklahoma; they are not asking favors; they are willing to share in every reasonable tax burden and other demands, and are only asking for a reasonable and fair chance to survive and help further extend the industry that means more to the people than any other industry in the State.

Fair, Honorable, Men For the Legislature

With the hope of procuring an economical business administration of the state government, we appeal to and ask the cooperation of the voters of the respective political parties in each legislative district to select honorable, fair-minded and capable men to serve in the Legislature. We likewise plead that the same effort be made in the selection of all public officers.

We believe if this method is followed all industry will be treated fairly and that the tax burdens upon all will be reduced.

MID-CONTINENT OIL & GAS ASSOCIATION

consummation. From this green hillside we also ought to be able to see with comprehending eyes the world that lies about us and should conceive anew the purposes that must set men free.
"It is significant—significant of their own character and purpose and of the influence they were setting afoot—that Washington and his associates, like the barons at Runnymede, spoke and acted, not for a class, but for a people. It has been left for us to see to it that it shall be understood that they spoke and acted not for a single people, only, but for all mankind. They were thinking, not of themselves and of the material interests which centered in the little groups of land holders and merchants—men of affairs with whom they were accustomed to act, in Virginia and the colonies to the north and south of her, but of a people which wished to be done with classes and special interests and the authority of men whom they had not themselves chosen to rule over them. They entertained no private purpose, desired no peculiar privilege. They were consciously planning that men of every class should be free and America a place to which men out of every nation might resort who wished to share with them the rights and privileges of free men. And we take ours from them—do we not? We intend that they intended. We here in America believe our participation in this present war to be only the fruitage of what they planted. Our case differs from theirs only in this, that it is our inestimable privilege to consent with men out of every nation what shall make not only the liberties of America secure but the liberties of every other people as well. We are happy in the thought that they are permitted to do what they would have done had they been in our place. There must now be settled once for all what was settled for America in the great age upon whose inspiration we draw today. This is surely a fitting place from which calmly to look out upon our task, that we may fortify our spirits for its accomplishment and this is the appropriate place from which to avow, alike to the friends who look in and to the friends with whom we have the happiness to be associated in action, the faith and purpose with which we act."

"Thus, then, is our conception of the great struggle in which we are engaged. The plot is written plain upon every scene and every act of the supreme tragedy. On the one hand stands the people of the world—engaged, but many others also who suffer under mastery but cannot act; peoples of many races and in every part of the world—the people of stricken Russia still, among the rest though they are for the moment unorganized and helpless. Opposed to them, masters of many armies, stand in isolated, friendless group of governments who speak no common purpose but only selfish ambitions of their own by which none can profit but themselves, and whose peoples are fuel in their hands: Governments which fear their people and yet are for the time their sovereign lords, making every choice for them and disposing of their lives and fortunes as they will, as well as of the lives and fortunes of every people who fall under their power—governments clothed with the strange trappings and the primitive authority of an age that is altogether alien and hostile to our own. The Past and Present are in deadly grapple and the peoples of the world are being done to death between them.
"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise. No half-way decision would be tolerable. No half-way decision is conceivable. These are the ends for which the associated people of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before there can be peace."
"1.—The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly, and of its single choice disturb the peace of the world, or, if it cannot be presently destroyed, at the least its reduction to virtual impotence.

"3.—The consent of all nations to be governed in their conduct towards each other by the same principles of honor and of respect for the common law of civilized society that govern the individual citizens of all modern states in their covenants may be secretly observed, no private plots or conspiracies hatched, no selfish injuries wrought with impunity and a mutual trust established upon the handsome foundation of a mutual respect for right."
"4.—The establishment of an organization of peace which shall make it certain that the combined power of free nations will check every invasion of right and serve to make peace and justice the more secure by affording a definite tribunal of opinion to which all must submit and by which every international readjustment that cannot be amicably agreed upon by the people directly concerned should be sanctioned.
"These great objects can be put into a single sentence. What we see is the reign of law based upon the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind."
"These great ends cannot be achieved by debating and seeking to reconcile and accommodate what statesmen may wish, with their projects for balances of power and of national opportunity. They can be realized only by the determination of what the thinking peoples of the world desire, with their longing for justice and for social freedom and opportunity.
"I can fancy that the air of this place carries the accents of such principles with a peculiar kindness. Here were started forces which the great nation against which they were primarily directed at first regarded as a revolt against its rightful authority but which it has long since seen to have been a step in the liberation of its own people as well as the people of the United States and I stand here now to speak—speak proudly and with confident hope—of the spread of this revolt, this liberation, to the great stage of the world itself. The blinded rulers of Prussia have roused forces they knew little of—forces which, once roused, can never be crushed to earth again; for they have at their heart an inspiration and a purpose which are deathless and of the very stuff of triumph."

I HAD NER- VOUS BREAKDOWN

Now Own My Present Health and Strength to Vinol.

Burdett, N. Y.—"I keep house for my family of three, and raise chickens. I had a nervous breakdown, so I was unable to work. The doctor did not seem to help me, and a cousin asked me to try Vinol. It built me up—I now have a good appetite and am well and strong."—Mrs. Loyal Palmer.
There is no secret about Vinol—it owes its success to beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the oldest and most famous body-building and strength creating tonics.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., and Drug-gists everywhere.

When you feel lary, out of sorts and yawn a good deal in the daytime, you can charge it to a torpid liver which has allowed the system to get full of impurities. HERBINE cures all disorders produced by an inactive liver. It strengthens that organ, cleanses the bowels and puts the system in good healthy condition. Price 60c. Sold by Bart Smith.

BILL MURRAY CAMPAIGN BE LAUNCHED TOMORROW

The campaign of W. H. Murray will be announced in this county Saturday afternoon when several addresses will be delivered on the Farmers State Bank corner in Ada. W. C. Duncan, president of the Murray for Governor Club of Pontotoc County, and others will speak.

The Murray Club was organized here several months ago, when the candidacy of the Sage of Tishomingo had not been announced. The friends of the former congressman in this county have been active in getting him to announce and will make an earnest drive for votes for the remainder of the campaign.

CONFEDERATE PENSIONERS ARE GIVEN AN INCREASE

Oklahoma City, Ok., July 4.—Twenty-one hundred persons entitled to pensions under the law pensioning Confederate veterans, received $26 each during the quarter ending June 30, instead of the $15 a quarter which had previously been their allotment. An appropriation of $150,000 a year is allowed by law to cover the entire number of applicants for pensions. On account of deaths during the year among the claimants it was found that a surplus of $4,500 occurred from the money allotment after paying claimants at the rate of $15 a quarter. The surplus would otherwise have reverted to the state if left unexpended, and the Pension Board decided to apportion it to the claimants for the last quarter. The same procedure may be extended through the next fiscal year, but the payment of any surplus will not be made until the last quarter.

ITALIANS DROP BURNING OIL ON AUSTRIAN BRIDGES

Italian Army Headquarters, Wednesday, July 3.—The fighting that is in progress along the lower reaches of the Piave is as severe as was that of last week in this region, where mud, sand and water are everywhere underfoot and clumps of tall growing grasses are frequent.

At four points the Italians attacked the Austrian position in this region along a frontage of eight miles. Here twelve temporary bridges thrown across by the Austrians were destroyed by airplanes dropping small barrels of burning oil upon them. The Italian infantry are frequently seen a short distance away, calmly waiting while the bridges are attacked from the air, the troops then being thrown against the remaining Austrians.

About the most violent resistance displayed by any of the enemy troops is that of the Bosnians and Herzegovinians on this front. As the Italians advance they are finding the dead among these already stripped by their comrades.

There are other Austrians, however who as soon as they are taken prisoner and find themselves safe within the Italian lines, cry "Down with Austria."

All citizens of the Third Ward are urged to be present at a meeting of the Council of Defense at the Baptist Church in North Ada this evening at 8:30. Some things of unusual importance are to come up. Some of the best speakers in the city will address the meeting and an interesting program is promised. A. N. Harrison insists that this is one of the most important meetings yet held.

Crockett Hargis and family have returned from Granite where Mr. Hargis has been employed as a guard at the reformatory for the past two or three years and will make this their home. Mr. Hargis stated that he was anxious to get back to a place where something grows. It has been very dry in that part of the state and the only means of beans the family has had this year was bought at a store where it arrived before others had learned of its coming. That is too much for Crockett.

HEADS OF NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE ACQUITTED

(By the Associated Press)
St. Paul, Minn., July 5.—The Minnesota supreme court held that A. C. Townley, president of the non-partisan league, and Joseph Gilbert, organizer, did not violate any state law by circulating certain literature referring to the war.

FACTS ABOUT THE GERMANS

DR. A. P. BOURLAND DELIVERS SCHOLARLY LECTURE ON NORMAL BASED ON OBSERVATIONS.

The German is a projected man, and not the result of any particular development, projected from the stone age and a product of the sixth century when German ideals began to crystallize, a firm believer in might making right, declared Dr. A. P. Bourland in his address at the normal this morning. Dr. Bourland spent several years in German universities and in giving a closer first hand study of the German people, their manner of living, their thought and system than almost any other man of the day. Hence, his address was from first hand sources.

To begin with the Germans of the fifth and sixth centuries who swarmed across the Rhine and conquered Gaul, eventually destroying the Roman Empire, were actuated more by a desire for plunder than any other motive and dealt with conquered people as ruthless as their descendants of today. This was the real reason of the great migration of that age.

The reverence for their rulers, amounting almost to worship had its origin in that age when believing firmly that certain families were direct descendants of their gods, the people looked members of these families as their kings, the idea being that this was the best means of keeping on good terms with these deities. This same spirit prevails and is zealously taught today.

One of the outstanding landmarks of history is the conquest of Gaul by Clovis in 496 when he parceled out the country to his lords who ruled under his direction. Then as now governing by terror was part and parcel of the German system. The monarchy will never be abolished while every reader and geography are on the rulers as divine and their word as supreme law. The right of the strong in the German ideal and it is this that must be crushed before the world can be safe. The German idea that he is a super-man destined to rule the world can only be dealt with by force, the only argument he is able to understand.

SLEEPS ANY OLD WAY NOW

"I am 50 years old and never was sick until 8 years ago when I got stomach trouble. I have spent a fortune for medicine which did not cure. I kept on suffering and getting worse. A fellow worker told me about May's Wonderful Remedy. After taking three doses I felt like a different man; before taking it I could not lie on my back nor right side. Now I can sleep any old way." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., and Druggists Everywhere.

"The Kaiser the Beast of Berlin."

Did you know that the Kaiser had a poison-filled abcess in his ear, and that if it burst he would be a raving maniac?

Did you know that the Kaiser's left arm is six inches shorter than his right, and that the hand is puny as a child's? And did you know how he carried it in order to disguise the deformity?

Did you know that the Kaiser has a mania for admiring beautiful hands which greatly embarrasses the ladies of his court? That he wears many bracelets and feminine rings, copied from those he admires? That he has 360 full-dress uniforms, that he has twice king, twice a grand duke, 13 times a duke, twice a prince, nine times a count, besides being a bishop?

Did you know why he slaps his right thigh all the time? Of course, you didn't. Few people outside of the imperial circle know them. They are secrets as carefully guarded as has been the proof that Germany planned and started the war.

All these things and many more in the private life of the Jackal of Europe, who has plunged the whole world into war and sorrow, are shown in "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin." To miss it is to miss the most illuminating expose of this enemy of mankind.

At the Liberty Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

SPECIAL LECTURE THIS EVENING

DR. A. P. BOURLAND WILL TELL OF GERMAN WOMANHOOD AND CHILDHOOD.

Dr. A. P. Bourland, who was scheduled to deliver three lectures on Germany and the German people, so completely won his audience at the normal this morning that he was importuned to deliver another on the subject of Womanhood and Childhood in Germany. He consented to make an informal talk on this line at the auditorium this evening at 8:45. His address will be supplemented by a few remarks by Mrs. Byron Norrell based on her observation of more than a year.

The second of the series of three will be delivered tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. Subject: Strength of the Wolf, dealing with the secret of German strength. The third will be delivered at 11 o'clock. Subject: The Outcome of the War.

These lectures, coming from a scholarly man trained to research work and based on his personal observation of several years, are unusually interesting and easily the best of the kind ever heard in Ada. The lectures are free to everybody and the public is cordially invited.

350,000 TONS NEW SHIPPING LAUNCHED

(By the Associated Press)
Philadelphia, July 5.—Reports to the emergency fleet corporation show sixty-four vessels launched yesterday, almost 350,000 deadweight tons. A freshet in the Columbia river prevented the launching of four-ton in the vicinity of Portland.

Your liberality in buying War Savings Stamps indicate that you are helping the boys "over there" on to Berlin.

I will continue to represent the Oklahoma National Life Insurance Company and give that line of business my entire attention. Respectfully,
JNO. H. GARDNER.
